GRADUATE SCHOOL APPLICATION

Admission Policies and Procedures

Selma University is a four- year institution accredited by ABHE (Association for Biblical Higher Education). The course of study, leading to the Master of Arts degree, is open to all persons holding the baccalaureate degree or its equivalent from a recognized college or university.

Graduates from non-accredited colleges are admitted conditionally. This condition is removed once the student demonstrates the ability to pursue graduate work successfully. Every student who enters must prove to be of sound moral character and worthy of the Christian ministry.

The final decision for admittance is based on the following:

1. A complete admission application on file that is signed and dated.
2. An official copy of immunization records, and a complete physical examination (Less than two years old).
3. Submit official transcripts from all colleges and universities attended to the Office of Admissions.

If you have any questions regarding the Admissions Process, please feel free to call:
